Hello and welcome to the Assisted Living Community Website Navigation for Measure Related Content.

Starting on the Joint Commission homepage, navigate to the Measurement tab.

[AD: On screen is a screenshot of the Joint Commission website. The presenter's cursor moves to the "measurement" option in the blue navigational bar toward the top of the website.]

00:10
[AD: After the presenter clicks on the measurement option, a new window opens for the measurement landing page on the Joint Commission website.]

Here you'll find the Assisted Living Community webpage link at the bottom of the list on the left-hand side. Click on the link and you'll have access to sections you may find useful when working with the measures.

[AD: A new page opens, which respects the assisted-living community program. At the top of the page, it reads facts about ORYX for ALC program.]

Let's start with the 2023 ORYX Reporting Requirements for ALC Program.

00:20
[AD: The presenter scrolls down on the website to a section along the bottom that has an option that reads "2023 ORYX reporting requirements for ALC program," and the cursor hovers over a "+" icon.]

Click on the plus sign (+) on the right-hand side of the tab.

00:30
[AD: A new section of the website opens that shows text for the 2023 ORYX reporting requirements for ALC program.]

Here you will see [AD: a list of] five ALC measures and a link to the 2023 ALC ORYX Performance Measurement Reporting Requirements document.

[AD: At the bottom of this section of the website is a link to the 2023 ALC performance measure reporting requirements document.]

00:35
[AD: After clicking on that link, a new screen opens to show a PDF document that is a table with all of the ALC measures listed additional information, extenuating circumstances, and resources. This is only a screenshot of that document.]

This document is updated yearly in the fall and will provide the reporting requirements for the specified year.

The next tab is Key Communications. Click on the plus sign (+) to open.
[AD: Presenter navigates back to the landing page for the ALC program measures and highlights the section related to key communications. The cursor hovers over the + icon. After additional text appears which reads the following communications were sent to assisted-living communities related to performance measurement. There are no additional documents or text included after that. Presenter indicates verbally that this section will be updated in the near future.]

This section will be updated with important time-sensitive information, such as changes in ORYX Reporting Requirements, annual measure selection deadlines, and other performance measurement- related activities. This information is also emailed to the listed ORYX and Primary Accreditation Contacts.

01:05
[AD: On the same landing page for the ALC measures, the presenter covers over the Resources line item on the page and covers over the + icon. After clicking on it, two additional options/links appear: one reads '2023: ORYX timeline' and the second reads 'FAQs.']

The Resources Tab has links to the 2023 ORYX Timeline and FAQ link.

01:11
[AD: After clicking on the 2023: ORYX timeline link, a PDF document opens that reads "2022-2023 ORYX performance measurement timeline for assisted living communities." Only a screenshot of this document is showing on screen and the presenter does not run through each individual section.]

The ORYX Timeline document will be updated yearly as well and have all the submission deadlines for entering data into the DDSP.

01:21
[AD: After clicking on the link for the FAQs, another page opens and this one is the ALC confluence page. The presenter verbally explains the different links and resources that are available on this website.]

The FAQ link brings you to the ALC Confluence page, which has a variety of information such as FAQs, Timeline Resources, Links and Abbreviations, and ALC Education Videos.

01:34
[AD: The screen moves back to the ALC measures landing page on the Joint Commission website, and the presenter highlights the section of that page reading "specifications." After clicking on the + icon that section of the website opens further to show text that reads: specifications are detailed in the specifications manual which is accessible on the Joint Commission's website under the specifications manual/chart abstracted measures page. A rectangular yellow button appears below that text that reads Joint Commission specifications manuals.]

The next is Specifications tab. Open this section and you will find a link to the Joint Commission Specification Manual. This link brings you to the manual homepage.

01:37
[AD: After clicking on the yellow rectangular button, a new screen opens for the manual homepage.]

There are three measure manuals. Be sure to click on the Assisted Living Community manual.

01:44
[AD: When the page opens for the specification manuals, the presenter covers over a yellow rectangular button that reads assisted living community. After clicking on that button, the screen opens to provide links to four different versions of the manual. The presenter verbally provides additional information.]

Here you'll see the four versions of the manual. The manual is updated every six months, and the manual coinciding with the applicable dates for which you're abstracting.

Going back to the ALC webpage, the final tab is Webinars.

01:53
[AD: The presenter navigates back to the ALC measures landing page. And highlights the last option in the list of selections which reads webinars. After clicking on the + icon another window opens.]

01:57
[AD: Additional text appears on the screen that reads "a webinar, assisted living community measures, is available for education on the measure specifications and data collection. It can be found under the quality measurement and videos/measure specific webinars page. Below that are two yellow rectangular buttons that read measure specific webinars and video short respectively.]

Here you'll find links to the Measure- Specific webinars
